Message From President Jeni:

2016 is here and the first primaries of this presidential election year are less than a month away. While every election feels like the future hangs in the balance, this year does so more than ever. Perhaps this is because there is so much rhetoric being thrown around that only a few years ago would have been considered way out of the mainstream of American thought. This is definitely a year to be involved. Come to our meetings to keep up on issues and to learn ways to be involved. While we don't have local campaigns in which to participate, there are crucial elections in surrounding districts where the potential exists to send more Democrats to Sacramento or Washington. Opportunities abound. Now is the time to get active!

- Jeni

Dr. Thomas Holyoke

In November, Dr. Holyoke enlightened us with a presentation regarding the prospects for the 2016 election year. President Obama's recent SOTU remarks regarding Republican candidate hot air on "carpet bombing" and America's economic standing have set the tone for the year and we can expect epic candidate confrontations. This without a single vote having been cast so far!
