Message From President Jeni:

This is proving to be one heck of a campaign season! It feels like the issues are shifting faster than one can track. The Republican debate and the earlier "kids table" were long on entertainment value but not much on policy. Donald Trump has everyone off balance. Bernie is drawing massive crowds, 28,000 in Portland, Oregon and 27,000 in Los Angeles, showing that people are wanting to hear what he has to say. At the same time, the Black Lives Matter activists are using disruption to draw attention to the distance we have yet to go to achieve racial equality in this country. On the horizon, we have a battle over the Iran agreement and a possible government shut down again over budget issues coming next month. Staying involved in the Club and being politically active are crucial at this time. Apathy in previous elections brought us to the current crossroads in where our nation is heading. We need to be part of the solution!

At this time, volunteering for voter registration of new citizens at the Naturalization Center is one of the best ways to become active. The next registration is August 18, 2015. Our Club Secretary, Bob Jones, who is tasked with heading up the registration effort, can be contacted at jonestroutlake@aol.com to participate.

Other ways to be active include becoming a precinct leader. Information about upcoming trainings can be obtained at the Democratic Headquarters at 559-495-0606.

POLLS: TRUMP LEADS GOP FIELD

But trails all sane people.

Michael Evans

Fresno County Democratic Party Chair Michael D. Evans will join us this month to provide us with some insight into what to expect during the 2016 election year campaign. Or as Jon Stewart would say (Gonna miss that guy), "Democalypse 2016". Be sure to join us for what promises to be a lively discussion.

Clovis Democratic Club Patriotic Picnic Fun

A good number of stalwart Democrats braved the "warm" weather to attend our annual picnic. Our speaker, Emilie Gatfield, and John Comiskey from the California Democratic Council talked about how CDC can support the club activities. Glynda Ward, Don Haulman and Lucy Elgin were honored for their years of service to the Clovis Democratic Club and the ideals of the Democratic Party.

Good food and good conversation
